'Cultural Threads' considers contemporary artists and designers who work at the intersection of cultures and use textiles as their vehicle. Ideas about belonging to multiple cultures, which can result in a sense of connection to everywhere and nowhere, are more pertinent to society today than ever. So too are the layers of history – often overlooked – behind the objects that make up our material world. This lecture considers contemporary textiles and their relationship with postcolonial culture.

Jessica Hemmings is currently Professor of Visual Culture and Head of the Faculty of Visual Culture at the National College of Art and Design, Dublin.

Everyone is welcome to attend.
