On Thursday 18th September 2014 people resident in Scotland will be able to vote in the Scottish Independence Referendum. Depicted as once-in-a-lifetime opportunity by Nationalists, Unionists tend to highlight the risks of shaking up a highly beneficial state structure. All campaigners agree though, that the result of this referendum will be of immense significance not only for the way Scotland is governed but also for the future of the United Kingdom.

The panellists include Professor Jim Gallagher, CB, FRSE, Nuffield College Oxford, Dr Gerry Mooney, Open University Glasgow, Angus Robertson MP, Professor Klaus Stolz (Chair), Technical University Chemnitz and Professor Helmut Weber, Centre for British Studies.

Everyone is welcome to attend.
