

LITERARY FIELD

k a l e i d o s c o p e

Muttersprache: Celebrating the Indigenous Languages of Wales, Scotland and Ireland

Tuesday, 26 November 2019

17.00 hours s.t.

Centre for British Studies

Mohrenstraße 60

10117 Berlin

www.literaturewales.org

www.literaryfield.org

www.gbz.hu-berlin.de

This exciting multi-language event will feature National Poet of Wales Ifor ap Glyn, Irish writer and performer Ciara Ní É, and Scottish performance poet Marcas Mac an Tuairneir. It will be chaired by Literature Wales CEO Lleucu Siencyn.

The writers will share and discuss language, literature and identity in their countries and read extracts from their work. The discussion will be held in English, with poetry performed in the respective languages of the poets, Welsh, Irish and Gaelic.

All are welcome.

*The event is a cooperation between Literary Field Kaleidoscope,
Centre for British Studies,
Literature Wales,
the Welsh Government and British Council Wales.*

HUMBOLDT-UNIVERSITÄT ZU BERLIN

