

British Humour in the German Adventszeit: "Weihnachten in Britton"

The Centre for British Studies (Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin), in cooperation with Hard Times and the Stiftung Luftbrückendank, proudly presents Mark Britton's comedy show "Weihnachten in Britton" on the occasion of the launch of Hard Times' latest issue "The Politics of British Humour".

Mark Britton will take the audience on a trip to the most important Christmas rites of his small island and the highlights of "Brittonic" humour: a hilarious mix of stand-up-comedy, pantomime, situation comedy, slapstick and crazy dance interludes.

Mark Britton, founder of the group "Nickelodeon" with Krissie Illing, received the London award "Entertainer of the Year" in 1985 and has toured all over the world with various productions. He now lives in Cologne, writing, acting, and directing theatre, radio and television plays.

Monday, 8 December 2008, 6 pm
Fritz-Reuter-Saal, Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin,
Dorotheenstr. 24, 10117 Berlin
House 2, Floor 3, Entrance: Hegelplatz

The show will be in English. All are welcome! Free entrance.

Information: www.gbz.hu-berlin.de