

Master in British Studies (M.B.S.)

Six good reasons to study the M.B.S. at the Centre for British Studies!

- Interdisciplinary and international course
- Practical and theoretical orientation
- Small groups and personal tutors
- Open to graduates from all disciplines
- All classes held in English
- No tuition fees

The course runs for 3 semesters (90 ECTS) for students whose first degree is equivalent to at least 210 ECTS credits. The course runs for 4 semesters (120 ECTS) for students whose first degree course is equivalent to less than 210, but at least 180 ECTS points. The course is structured as follows:

M.B.S. (90 ECTS)

History Literature Culture Legal System Politics Economy and Society	Option 1: Economy, Law, Politics	Internship in the UK and Master Thesis
	Option 2: Culture, Media, Cultural Management
1st semester	2nd semester	3rd semester

M.B.S. (120 ECTS)

History Literature Culture Legal System Politics Economy and Society	Option 1: Economy, Law, Politics	Internship in the UK	Master Thesis
	Option 2: Culture, Media, Cultural Management
1st semester	2nd semester	3rd semester	4th semester

The M.B.S. course runs on an annual basis and starts in October.
 The application deadline is 30 April of the respective year.