Three distinct Irish writers present recent work to their readers from Berlin. This conversation will explore their individual artistic preoccupations and perspectives and what connects their work to Ireland. Our Voices from Ireland are Louise Kennedy, who will be reading from her book Trespases (Übertretung, Steidl, 2023), Alan Murrin from his book Coast Road (DTV, 2025), and Micheál Ó Conghaile from his book An Island Christmas - Nollaig Oileánach (Die Insel, die unsere war, Weissbooks, 2024).

This public reading will be introduced by Sinéad Mac Aodha, Executive Director of Literature Ireland and moderated by Professor Dr Gesa Stedman (Director) of the Centre for British Studies, Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin.

Everyone is welcome to attend.
