

HUMBOLDT-UNIVERSITÄT ZU BERLIN

Großbritannien-Zentrum
Centre for British Studies

MONDAY LECTURES Winter Semester 2008-09

Monday, 20 October
2.30 pm

Gesa Stedman: Having one's cake and eating it - Food and Drink in Cultural and Literary Studies

Centre for British Studies

Professor Stedman's Inaugural Lecture will be followed by a reception.

Friday, 31 October
4.15 pm

Keynote Address

The Rgt. Hon. The Lord Mance of Frogal: Britain's developing constitution

Judicial Committee of the House of Lords

Please note: this lecture will take place in the Senatssaal, Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin, Unter den Linden 6.

The lecture will be followed by a reception.

Monday, 8 December
6 pm

Mark Britton: Weihnachten in Britton

Acclaimed comedian Mark Britton presents a show that casts a new light on presents, carol singers, christmas shopping and the story of the nativity...

Please note: Venue to be confirmed.

Monday, 15 December
3.15 pm

Gerry Mooney: Towards the Break-Up of Britain? What is different this time?

The Open University

The lecture will be followed by a reception.

Monday, 19 January
4 pm

Stephen Ferguson: Music in Britain and Germany, an Interdisciplinary Comparison

Composer and Music Producer

Wednesday, 11 February
5 pm

Tim Blanning: Two roads to stability, two roads to revolution: Great Britain and Prussia in the long eighteenth century.

Cambridge University

This lecture is organised with the support of the Stiftung Luftbrückendank.

Unless specified otherwise, all lectures take place at the

Centre for British Studies

Mohrenstr. 60, 10117 Berlin,
Room 105

All are welcome!

gbz@gbz.hu-berlin.de

Please note:
The Centre has a new address!